About Susan Jane Lees

Susan has worked as a wildlife illustrator at Bristol Zoo for the past 16 years and also as an independent wildlife artist for longer than that. She enjoys working in many mediums, batik being one, and her main subject choice tends to be the wildlife of Africa.

Susan was first introduced to batik on a workshop over 10 years ago and loved it; her newly engaged enthusiasm compelling her to miss the tea breaks so that she could keep going through the day!

Course description

Learning to paint with wax and colour is great fun and even the most nervous beginner can produce lovely designs and images within a very short space of time. Over the two days, after getting familiar with the medium and equipment, we will be producing beautiful images that can be hung on the wall or made into cushion covers etc from projects that I set or your own ideas.
